BMF SMUGGLER: THE WORLD IS OURS

"It's a real, gritty, and surprisingly touching look at the man behind the headlines."---

Christian Kirk, book critic, host for Focus on the Arts/anchor SVP News

Not your typical gangster story, BMF Smuggler: The World is Ours goes into the mind of a murderer and tells the story of how the charismatic teenage Craig Petties was shaped into the man who would become one of America's most notorious criminals. This is a cautionary tale of the dangers of the entourages and misguided ambition. Without being preachy or overly philosophical, author Katherine Arandez shows how Petties' petty crime snowballed into massive drug shipments, murder, and glory that ultimately ended in isolation and self-destruction.

About the Author: Katherine Arandez is a storyteller. Her nomadic childhood, sharp observation, and love for rich characters has shaped her writing style into one that breathes life into the pages of her novels. Katherine Arandez is a twice published author. Her first book, Weaver is an exciting sci-fi/fantasy novel, the first in a series of thirty planned books. In BMF Smuggler: The World is Ours, her latest work, written in collaboration with filmmaker Tracy L. Matthews, Katherine delves into the reality of Memphis' drug trade and tells the story of Craig Petties and the Black Mafia Family (BMF) like it has never been told before.
